Join business meetings, organized in cities hosting matches, with Business France and its regional partners. Get more information on the economic potential of French regions, as well as tailor-made programs to discover France as a land of innovation and its potential for industrialization.

From September 8 to October 28, 2023, France will host the Rugby World Cup. With 20 participating countries and 9 host cities for 45 days of competition, we invite the world to meet!

On this occasion, Business France and its regional partners will be organizing attractiveness sequences with international investors on the sidelines of several matches.

These "Business France Rugby Clubs" will enable you to establish privileged exchanges with regional players and French businesses, to present you with business opportunities or to further develop your activities, as well as briefings on the French economic and regulatory environment. These meetings can be in the form of personalized routes for visits to French economic and technological showcases, notably in connection with the "France 2030" plan.

We would be happy to invite you to one of our "Business France Rugby Clubs". If you intend to come to France to attend matches, please contact us so that we can optimize your trip. Should you be looking for available tickets for any game, we will be pleased to put you in touch with the Stade de France official hospitalities teams.
